

director is absconder and ED and CBI is searching them," said the Mumbai bench of NCLT bench presided over by VP Singh and Ravikumar Duraisamy.

"In the background, passing any further order, we would like to issue notice to central government, enforcement directorate (ED), Income Tax authorities, CBI, SEBI and RBI, so that if they want to make any representation, they can make the same before passing any further order."

The tribunal has given two weeks time to the government and various investigation agencies to file their response. The NCLT will hear the matter further on March 26.

Brookfield has already filed a preliminary placement memorandum for setting up an infrastructure investment trust (InvIT) to hold the pipeline assets. Brookfield will be the sponsor for this trust and will own 90% of it. The InvIT will acquire the entire stake in Pipeline Infrastructure Pvt Ltd, which currently owns and operates the 1,400-km gas pipeline from Kakinada on the east coast to Bharuch in Gujarat.
